ON THE COVER: Erin Vey got her client Lisa's daughter to show her to a more colorful room for this portrait of Daisy Mae. "Oh, my God, you didn't go upstairs, did you? I'm so embarrassed. I can only keep one level clean at a time!" Lisa exclaimed. "I told her not to worry," says Vey. "When she saw the shot, it would be worth any type of embarrassment. And it was!" Camera: Canon EOS 5D Mark II and 24-70mm f/2.8 L lens.

Destination sessions aren't just for weddings anymore. Bruce Berg discovered that couples are anxious to have their engagement photography done in beautiful, special locations. A travel fee, plus expenses, and images to create a knockout guestbook are a combination that make it a trip worth taking.
