Hearth, home and jet stream? Garrett and Joy Nudd wowed the wedding market in Central Florida, yet missed the comforts of their hometown in Tennessee. Unlikely as it seems, they've married their new local portrait business with their jet-setting destination wedding business.

ON THE COVER: Kimberly Wylie of Dallas made this portrait of 13-year-old Harris, son of a Hollywood talent manager, in the client's home. "Harris was so fun to work with—a natural in front of the camera," says Wylie. "The house had beautiful, large artworks, one of which I used as my background for this shot. I used only natural window light. The walls and the rug were white, so there was a ton of gorgeous light bouncing around, creating a perfect environment to shoot in." Wylie captured the image with a Canon EOS 5D Mark II with a 70-200mm f/4 lens, shooting at f/4.5 for 1/250 second, ISO 640. She performed minor retouching in Adobe Photoshop.
